Pantry Frig Layout Sketches

Frig info layout

Rightmost frig could be information focused on pantry operation

A panel could be about getting involved

B panel could be about operations, sorting, etc.

Center frig could be general RC info

A panel could be about general structure and ethos of space, along with some info on different consistent programming stuff

B panel could be more info, like financial stuff (move $ thermometer to here?), or involvement info, like open admin meeting schedule

Facade Display Case Layout Sketches

Towards more intentional use of the display case mounted on the building facade

Case ratio/size

28 7/8" tall by 19" wide
733mm x 482mm

Big poster with flyers

- Big central poster showing weekly recurring info with general RC descriptive blurb footer
- 1/4 page flyers for upcoming stuff below
- No public use (maybe even a note saying that we love to promote related stuff, but have a space inside for it?)

- Big central poster showing weekly recurring info, split into:
 - Left: Weekly
 - Right: stuff like letter writing (1st and 3rd Tues), writers workshop (every other Thurs), common threads (Third Thurs)
- Descriptive RC blurb below on separate panel for visual impact.
- 1/4 page flyers for upcoming stuff at bottom
- No public use (maybe even a note saying that we love to promote related stuff, but have a space inside for it?)
